1. Explain what you believe to be the cause(s) of your GPA having fallen below 1.8.

2. Briefly describe how you plan to improve your study habits, class attendance, and GPA. Be as specific as possible (e.g., tutors, regularly meeting with your professors, freshman mentor, advisor, residence hall director, study groups, lower your outside work/social commitments, improve your time management, etc.).

3. What university resources or services would you like more information about?

4. What is your goal for your next semester’s GPA and why do you think you will achieve it?

5. List the names/titles/relationship of individuals you will enlist to help you successfully achieve your goal.

By making application to be considered for an exception to the Housing and Residence Life (HRL) 1.8 Cumulative Grade Point Average policy, I understand that I am responsible for carrying out the goals I set forth above. I understand that I am required to meet with the associate dean in my college to create a plan for success to assist me in improving my academics and maintaining my housing. I understand that a copy of this application will be shared with my academic dean. I agree to meet with a member of the HRL staff to discuss my residence hall behavior, and that the HRL staff may check with my academic dean (or designee) to be sure I am meeting my academic commitments. Failing to create a plan, follow this plan or to disengage from my studies or engage in University policy violations may cause my housing license to be revoked.
